STRIKERS STILL FIRM
They Declare the Railroad Is Only Making a Bluff.
Non-Union Men at Perth Amboy Induced to Quit.
New Jersey Central Employees Ready for a Tie-Up.

A majority of the men employed in and about the Communipaw station at Perth Amboy, N. J., Nov. 25.—A probably fatal accident occurred in the Lehigh yards soon after 11 o'clock this forenoon.

David D. Kline, forty-five years old, living in Stanton, N. J., a green conductor, who had been engaged with other men to take the place of the strikers, was caught between two coal trains and jammed very badly. He almost rolled beneath the wheels of the train on which he was riding.

Dr. J. G. Wilson attended him. He was removed to St. Michael's Hospital. His chest was crushed and he was otherwise badly injured.

The strikers said when they heard of the accident that such things must be expected when new and green men were employed.

As to the condition of affairs here, the strikers to-day gained a point. About twenty of the new men failed to report for duty on duty this morning. They worked all day yesterday up to the time of shutting down, but through the intervention of the strikers they were induced to quit this morning.

Ten of them attended this morning's meeting of the strikers in Lehigh Hall, and said that they had been placed on the pay-roll of the Federation of Railroad Men.

On Monday, the strikers here will report of the 230 on strike will accept pay. The from the general strike fund. About 200 strikers, however, are still on strike. The Press Committee of the strikers states that while the strikers have intimidated nobody, their yardmaster has taken away from him if he did not return to work at once.

Supt. Donnelly, of the Lehigh road, left this place early to-day to run over the line. He did not return until this afternoon.

Yardmaster Tice, in his absence, said to the reporters that the road had no engines, all manned and in working order. The officials here have given assurances that the road would handle any freight they might wish to ship on Monday.

SYMPATHY FOR STRIKERS.
Clergymen Attend a Large Meeting in South Easton.

PHILIPSBURG, N. J., Nov. 25.—John J. Hanahan, Vice-Grand Master of the Brotherhood of Engineers and Firemen of Chicago, and P. H. Morrison, Vice-Grand Master of the Railroad Brotherhood, addressed a large meeting of the strikers last night at South Easton. The speakers advised the men to stand firm, and told them there were good prospects of winning the strike as favorable reports had been received all along the line.

Several of the clergymen who were present expressed their sympathy for the strikers.

Passenger trains on the Lehigh Valley road are running regularly this morning, but are carrying comparatively few passengers. The engine was lifted from the road because of their sympathy for the strikers.

ALL QUIET AT SAYRE.
Leading Citizens Ask the Governor Not to Send Troops.

(By Associated Press.)
ELMHURST, N. Y., Nov. 25.—All is quiet at Sayre to-day. A telegram has been sent to the Governor, signed by leading citizens, the post master and others, asking him to refuse to order out the militia.

It is learned that the third man injured by the explosion of an engine's boiler at Stanton's tank last night, was fireman H. J. Cooley, who is in a critical condition. The explosion was caused by low water in the boiler. The engine was lifted from the tracks and carried over a hundred feet away.

GETTING MEN IN CHICAGO.
Thirty-four of the Unemployed Taken from Police Station Lodgings.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—Two men claiming to be railroaders, and refusing to give their names, secured the release of thirty-four unemployed men who had found lodging in police stations last night, and promised to give them employment. The engine was lifted from the tracks and carried over a hundred feet away.

The police believe that the men are to be sent to Buffalo and there distributed over the Lehigh Valley Railroad to take the place of the strikers.

THOSE LADY MANAGERS.
They Invited Secretary Carlisle to Tea and He Had to Foot the Bill.

Those women managers at the World's Fair can get their foot in it without half trying. Generally they get both feet in it, and noticeably so in a little while they gave last summer, says the Cincinnati Tribune. When Secretary Carlisle and his wife visited the Fair in the summer these lady managers, with an eye to business, gave a little informal lunch to the distinguished visitor.

It is a good thing to be in favor with the Secretary of the National Treasury, and enjoy the smiles and influence of such a Secretary's wife. But the lady managers made no provision to foot the bill. The Secretary would attend to that, and a voucher was duly filed for lunch to Secretary and Mrs. Carlisle, four or five dollars.

Some lynx-eyed official went so far as to examine the voucher and presumably called the Secretary's attention to it. He, of course, was sensible enough to know the impropriety of such an expenditure, and went down in his pocket and footed the bill. Of course $40 was too much to pay for a cup of tea and a macaroon, but it was better than a full-scale political scandal.

The women managers, if they have a due sense of the fitness of things, will now take up a collection and reimburse the Secretary. They are able, but are they willing?

FAVORS THE FORECLOSURE.
Judge Dykman Decides Against New York and Northern.

New York Central Will Get Control of the Road.

Justice Dykman, of the Supreme Court, handed down a decision at White Plains, to-day, in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company for a foreclosure of the second mortgage against the New York and Northern Railway Company.

The suit was tried two weeks ago. David McClure, of this city, appeared for the Trust Company, and Simon Sterne opposed the foreclosure on behalf of a minority of the stockholders of the New York and Northern.

This minority declared that the foreclosure was the climax of a scheme of the Vanderbilts to get control of the smaller road, and Cornelius Vanderbilt, Chauncey M. Depew, Treasurer Roadster, Auditor Carstairs, William C. Whitney, J. Pierpont Morgan and others prominent in the Vanderbilt party were subpoenaed.

Mr. Sterne attempted to show that Mr. Morgan had purchased $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern. He also showed that the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.

That the bank had then bought $1,000,000 worth of the remaining $1,000,000 worth of the second mortgage bonds, and $2,500,000 worth of preferred stock, and $2,500,000 worth of common stock of the New York and Northern.
